

HYGIENE NUTRITION SCHEME OF WORK GRADE 2 TERM 1

|         |  |
|---------|--|
| NAME    |  |
| TSC NO. |  |
| SCHOOL  |  |

| SCHOOL | GRADE | LEARNINGAREA | TERM | YEAR |
|--------|-------|------------------|------|------|
|        |       |                  |      |      |

| Week | Lesson | Strand              | Sub-Strand             | Specific learningOutcomes                                                                                                                                                  | Key InquiryQuestions                                                   | Learning Experiences                                                                                                                                                                      | LearningResources                                                                                     | Assessment                    | Reflection |
|------|--------|---------------------|----------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------|------------|
| 1    | 1      | HealthPractices | Importanceof breakfast | By the end of thesub-strand, thelearner should be ableto:state the meaning ofthe wordbreakfast                                                         | What isbreakfast                                                       | Learners are guided tobrainstorm on the meaningof the word breakfast.Learners identify breakfastas a meal taken after along period of not havingeaten (at night). | Hygiene and nutritionGrade 2 page 3-5ChartPicturesColoursCrayonscomputing devices | Observationoral questions |            |
|      | 2      | HealthPractices | Importanceof breakfast | By the end of thesub-strand, thelearner should be ableto:identify whenbreakfast is takenduring the dayname food itemstaken duringbreakfast | What isbreakfast                                                       | Learners name food itemsthey eat and drink in themorning.Learners are guided to telltheimportance of eatingbreakfast as a healthyhabit.                       | Hygiene and nutritionGrade 2 page 6-9ChartPicturesColoursCrayonscomputing devices | Observationoral questions |            |
| 2    | 1      | HealthPractices | Importanceof breakfast | By the end of thesub-strand, thelearner should be ableto:tell the importance ofeating breakfast as a                                                       | Why is itimportant toeat and drinksomething in themorning? | Learners are guided tokeep a daily record offoods they eat forbreakfast.Learners draw and colourfoods eaten for breakfast                                             | Hygiene and nutritionGrade 2 page 6-9ChartPictures                                            | Observationoral questions |            |

|   |   |                  |              |                                                                                                                                      |                                                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                              |                               |  |
|---|---|------------------|--------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------|--|
|   |   |                  |              | healthy habit, appreciate the importance of taking breakfast in the morning                                                          |                                                 | using pencils, papers, crayons and computing devices. Learners can type names of foods eaten for breakfast using computing devices.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | ColoursCrayonscomputing devices                                                                                                                                      |                               |  |
|   | 2 | Health Practices | Oral hygiene | By the end of the sub-strand, the learner should be able to:identify good oral habits that promote development of healthy teeth, | What things do I do that are good for my teeth? | In groups learners share experiences on things they do with their teeth. Learners are guided to identify good oral habits (brushing teeth at least twice a day, eating foods that are good for healthy teeth and visiting a dentist at least twice a year) and bad oral habits (nail biting, pencil chewing, using tooth picks and finger sucking) using pictures, video clips and illustrations. | Hygiene and nutritionGrade 2 page 10-11Oral dental hygiene practitionerpictures of teeth showing effects of good oral habits and poor oral habitsvideo clips | Observationoral questions |  |
| 3 | 1 | Health Practices | Oral hygiene | By the end of the sub-strand, the learner should be able to:identify harmful oral habits that damage teeth                       | What things do I do that are good for my teeth? | Learners are guided to identify good oral habits (brushing teeth at least twice a day, eating foods that are good for healthy teeth and visiting a dentist at least twice a year) and bad oral habits (nail biting, pencil chewing, using tooth picks and finger sucking) using pictures, video clips and illustrations                                                                           | Hygiene and nutritionGrade 2 page 13-15Oral dental hygiene practitionerpictures of teeth showing effects of good oral habits and poor oral habitsvideo clips | Observationoral questions |  |

|   |   |                  |                                   |                                                                                                                                                    |                                                                                             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                                                                                                                                           |                               |  |
|---|---|------------------|-----------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------|--|
|   | 2 | Health Practices | Oral hygiene                      | By the end of the sub-strand, the learner should be able to:practise good oral habits to promote their well-being                              | What things do I do that are harmful for my teeth?                                          | Learners are guided to keep a simple record on the number of times they brush their teeth in a day.                                                                                                                                                                                      | Hygiene and nutritionGrade 2 page 13-15Oral dental hygienepractitioner pictures of teeth showing effects of good oral habits and poor oral habits video clips | Observationoral questions |  |
| 4 | 1 | Health Practices | Oral hygiene                      | By the end of the sub-strand, the learner should be able to:appreciate good oral habits to promote their well being                            | How many times do I brush my teeth in a day?                                                | Learners listen to a talk by a dental practitioner on good oral habitsLearners watch videos that promote good oral habits.                                                                                                                                                           | Hygiene and nutritionGrade 2 page 13-15Oral dental hygienepractitioner pictures of teeth showing effects of good oral habits and poor oral habits video clips | Observationoral questions |  |
|   | 2 | Health Practices | Use of different rooms in a house | By the end of the sub-strand, the learner should be able to:name the various rooms in a house, mention the use of the various rooms in a house | How many rooms/areas are in your house? Which are these Different rooms/areas in your home? | Learners describe their house to each other and are guided to identify common areas/rooms in their houses.Learners state the use of different rooms in the house to maintain hygiene( kitchen for cooking, bedroom for sleeping, dining for eating, Living room for socializing, and | Hygiene and nutritionGrade 2 page 16-17pictures of equipment used in various rooms in a housecomputing devicespencilspapers                           | Observationoral questions |  |

|  |   |                  |                                   |                                                                                                                                    |                                                                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                                                                                                                                            |                               |  |
|--|---|------------------|-----------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------|--|
|  |   |                  |                                   |                                                                                                                                    |                                                                 | bathroom for bathing ).                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | crayons                                                                                                                                                    |                               |  |
|  | 1 | Health Practices | Health Practices                  | Use of different rooms in a house                                                                                                  | What are the main activities carried out in these rooms/ areas? | Learners are guided to sort out equipment for different rooms in a house based on the activities that are carried out in those rooms using pictures (jiko, utensils, chairs, tables, bed bucket/basins, sofa sets, wardrobe, knife, spoons). | Hygiene and nutritionGrade 2 page 18-19pictures of equipment used in various rooms in a housecomputing devicespencilspaperscrayons | Observationoral questions |  |
|  | 2 | Health Practices | Use of different rooms in a house | By the end of the sub-strand, the learner should be able to:Name equipment and furniture used in the various rooms in a house. | Which equipment is found in these rooms/areas?                  | Learners are guided to mention the importance of keeping the various rooms in a house clean and tidy. Learners draw and colour pictures of equipment used in different rooms in a house.                                                     | Hygiene and nutritionGrade 2 page 18-19pictures of equipment used in various rooms in a housecomputing devicespencilspaperscrayons | Observationoral questions |  |
|  | 1 | Health Practices | Use of different rooms in a house | By the end of the sub-strand, the learner should be able to:mention the importance of keeping the various rooms in a house     | Why is it important to keep the house clean                     | Learners play games by placing different equipment in their respective rooms using computing devices.                                                                                                                                        | Hygiene and nutritionGrade 2 page 18-19pictures of equipment used in various rooms in a house                                                      | Observationoral questions |  |

|   |   |                  |                      |                                                                                                                        |                                       |                                                                                                                                              |                                                                                                                                              |                               |  |
|---|---|------------------|----------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------|--|
|   |   |                  |                      | clean and tidy                                                                                                         |                                       |                                                                                                                                              | computing devicespencilspaperscrayons                                                                                            |                               |  |
| 5 | 1 | Health Practices | Cleaning of utensils | By the end of the sub-strand, the learner should be able to:mention reasons for cleaning utensils at home          | Why do we clean utensils?             | Learners mention reasons for clean utensils at home                                                                                          | Hygiene and nutritionGrade 2 page 26-27realia (utensils and cleaning materials)computing devicespaperspencilscrayons | Observationoral questions |  |
|   | 2 | Health Practices | Cleaning of utensils | By the end of the sub-strand, the learner should be able to:identify materials used for cleaning utensils at home, | What do we use to clean the utensils? | Learners identify materials for cleaning utensils at home using realia (soap and soap dish, sponge/sisal fibre/piece of cloth, drying rack). | Hygiene and nutritionGrade 2 page 28-29realia (utensils and cleaning materials)computing devicespaperspencilscrayons | Observationoral questions |  |
| 6 | 1 | Health Practices | Cleaning of utensils | By the end of the sub-strand, the learner should be able to:clean, dry and store the                               | How do we clean the utensils?         | In groups learners practise cleaning, drying and storing the utensils (cup, plate, bowl/basin spoon, jug and sufuria).                       | Hygiene and nutritionGrade 2 page 28-29realia (utensils and cleaning materials)                                                      | Observationoral questions |  |

|   |   |                  |                              |                                                                                                                                                             |                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                              |                               |  |
|---|---|------------------|------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------|--|
|   |   |                  |                              | utensils used at home.                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                   | computing devicespaperspencilscrayons                                                                                            |                               |  |
|   | 2 | Health Practices | Cleaning of utensils         | By the end of the sub-strand, the learner should be able to:Appreciate the importance of cleaning the utensils at home.                                 | How do we dry and store the utensils?                                                         | Learners peer teach on how to clean, dry and store utensils                                                                                       | Hygiene and nutritionGrade 2 page 28-29realia (utensils and cleaning materials)computing devicespaperspencilscrayons | Observationoral questions |  |
| 7 | 1 | Health Practices | Dangers of second hand smoke | By the end of the sub-strand, the learner should be able to:mention substances that people smoke that are harmful to our health                         | Which are the Harmful substances that people smoke?                                           | learners brainstorm on substances that people smoke and are harmful to our health (tobacco and cigarette)                                         | Hygiene and nutritionGrade 2 page 30-31Flash cardsPostersPicturescomputing devices                                       | Observation                   |  |
|   | 2 | Health Practices |                              | By the end of the sub-strand, the learner should be able to:mention the places where people smoke these substances, tell that a person has been smoking | Which places/areas do people smoke from?How can you tell that a person has been smoking ? | learners mention the areas/places where people smoke these substanceslearners share experiences on how they have encountered a person smoking | Hygiene and nutritionGrade 2 page 33-34Flash cardsPostersPicturescomputing devices                                       | oral questions                |  |

|   |   |                  |                                       |                                                                                                                                                                         |                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                            |                                                                                                         |                |  |
|---|---|------------------|---------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------|--|
| 8 | 1 | Health Practices |                                       | By the end of the sub-strand, the learner should be able to:state the meaning of the word second hand smoke                                                         | What is second hand smoke?                         | learners are guided to tell that a person has been smokinglearners are guided to explain the meaning of the word second hand smoke                                     | Hygiene and nutritionGrade 2 page 335-36Flash cardsPostersPicturescomputing devices | Observation    |  |
|   | 2 | Health Practices |                                       | By the end of the sub-strand, the learner should be able to:Tell the effects of second hand smoke on health,develop self-efficacy in avoiding second hand smoke | Why is it important to keep off second hand smoke? | Learners tell the effects of second hand smoke on health                                                                                                                   | Hygiene and nutritionGrade 2 page 35-36Flash cardsPostersPicturescomputing device   | oral questions |  |
| 9 | 1 | Health Practices | Keeping water safe from contamination | By the end of the sub-strand, the learner should be able to:tell what is water contamination,                                                                       | What is water contamination                        | Learners are guided to brainstorm on the meaning of contaminated waterLearners are guided to carry out a simple experiment to illustrate how water is contaminated     | Hygiene and nutritionGrade 2 page 38-39ChartsPicturescomputing devices                  | Observation    |  |
|   | 2 | Health Practices | Keeping water safe from contamination | By the end of the sub-strand, the learner should be able to:carry out experiment to demonstrate water contamination,                                                | How is water Contaminated                          | Learners carry out an experiment that will enable them observe physical changes that occur in contaminated water (change of colour, smell, presence of foreign substances) | Hygiene and nutritionGrade 2 page 40-41ChartsPicturescomputing device                   | oral questions |  |

|    |   |                  |                                       |                                                                                                                                                                          |                                          |                                                                                                                                                                                        |                                                                                       |                                |  |
|----|---|------------------|---------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------|--|
| 10 | 1 | Health Practices | Keeping water safe from contamination | By the end of the sub-strand, the learner should be able to:mention changes in water that is contaminated,state ways in which we can prevent water contamination | What happens when water is contaminated? | Learners are guided to tell how they can prevent contamination of water for drinking at home and schoolLearners open and play a video on activities to prevent water contamination | Hygiene and nutritionGrade 2 page 40-41ChartsPicturescomputing device | observation,oral questions |  |
|    | 2 |                  | Re-using water and soap at home       | By the end of the sub-strand, the learner should be able to:explain the meaning of word reusing,                                                                     | What do we use water and soap for?       | Learners brainstorm on the meaning of the word re-using                                                                                                                                | Hygiene and nutritionGrade 2 page 44-45ChartsPicturescomputing device | observation,oral questions |  |