2 STAGES OF PORTFOLIO DEVELOPMENT

Activity 2

In groups, participants to discuss and present on the stages of portfolio development

Overview

The portfolio development process consists of four basic steps:

- ❑ collection,
- ❑ selection,
- ❑ reflection,
- ❑ projection.

2. STAGES OF PORTFOLIO DEVELOPMENT

- 2.1 Planning
- 2.2 Communication
- 2.3 Collection of work
- 2.4 Selection of work samples
- 2.5 Reflection
- 2.6 Feedback

Stages of portfolio development

.....cont.d

2.1 Planning

- a) The function / purpose- To show learners progress, achievement or mastery of competencies , learner interest or talents.
- b) Types e.g. working, show case, or assessment
- c) Audience: the consumers of the portfolio e.g. teachers, parents, school administration
- d) Design of the portfolio:
 - Storage holders.
 - Colour codes.

Stages of portfolio development

.....cont.d

2.2 Communication

The teacher should communicate to the learners, Headteacher, other teachers and parents about the:

- a) purpose of the portfolio
- b) Assessment criteria
- c) Requirements

Stages of portfolio development

.....cont.d

2.3 Collection of work samples

- Learners are guided by the teacher to assemble work that reflects their own progress and mastery of competencies.
- The collection should be guided by
 - a) Purpose of the portfolio
 - b) Specified learning outcomes and competencies
 - c) Evaluation criteria
 - d) Personal goals, interests and abilities

Stages of portfolio development

.....cont.d

2.4 Selection of work samples

- This is the decision-making stage where the learner selects the work to be added to the portfolio and how it should be arranged.
- The selection is guided by the type and purpose of the portfolio.
- Learners should be guided and encouraged to select the best of their own work.

Stages of portfolio development

.....cont.d

2.5 Reflection

- Learners should make a self assessment comment on the work selected for addition to a portfolio, and on their own work.
- The reflection statements can be:
 - a) Learners thoughts on their own learning;
 - b) Strengths and weaknesses identified;
 - c) Progress on the specified competency.

Stages of portfolio development

.....cont.d

Questions that guide reflection include:

- a) What did I learn from it?
- b) What did I do well?
- c) Why did I choose this item? (Based on the assessment criteria or own interests)
- d) What do I do to improve on the item?
- e) How do I feel about my performance?
- f) What are the problem areas?
- g) What are others' opinion about my work?

Stages of portfolio development

.....cont.d

2.6 Feedback

The work selected for addition into a portfolio should contain feedback from peers, parents and teachers.

Feedback should be positive and focus on the work and not the individual learner

Feedback may be provided after the learners' reflections on their own work

Cont'

Table of contents

- ▶ This shows what is contained in the portfolio.
- ▶ The contents can be organized based on
 - learning areas,
 - tasks or
 - core competencies.

Features of a good Portfolio

..... contd

Entries

- This includes core and optional items.
- Core items are required for each learner to facilitate decision making during assessment.
- Core items provide evidence of performance on the specified learning outcomes or competencies.
- Optional items on the other hand are the items of the learner's choice

Dates

- All entries must be dated to provide proof of growth over time.

Drafts

- These include initial and revised/corrected/improved versions of learner's aural/oral and written/constructed products.

Feedback

- This could be on the level of performance, progress and feelings about their work.

Activity 4

In groups, Participants to discuss and make presentations on the following:

- a) Management of portfolio in classroom assessment
- a) Parental engagement in portfolio assessment
- b) Importance of portfolio assessment

4.0 MANAGEMENT OF PORTFOLIO IN CLASSROOM ASSESSMENT

The teacher should:

- 4.1 Go over the portfolio with the learners at regular intervals to ensure that the selected pieces address the learning outcomes.
- 4.2 Ensure limited number of entries for practical reasons. Focus should be on Quality and not Quantity.

Management of portfolio in classroom assessment.....contd

4.3 Involve the learners in organizing the portfolio by completing checklists of the assignments done and include the dates on all entries.

4.4 Organize for the storage of the learners' portfolios which should be easily accessible.

4.5 Separate/Colour code portfolios for each class to facilitate their retrieval.

4.6 Ensure that storage holders for the portfolio are made from manila envelopes, folders, files, or learners can improvise their own using locally available materials

5.0 PARENTAL ENGAGEMENT IN PORTFOLIO ASSESSMENT

5.1 There should be a planned program for parental engagement in portfolio assessment.

5.2 The parents should be informed about

- a) Portfolio assessment;
- b) Participation in learner-led portfolio conferences/interactions;
- c) Provision of feedback to their child;
- d) Identifying and providing learning opportunities and resources;
- e) Provision of support for their child's effort and interest.

IMPORTANCE OF PORTFOLIO ASSESSMENT

- 6.1 Assessment is integrated in teaching and learning process.
- 6.2 Instruction goal are set at the beginning and are both clear to the teacher and the learner.
- 6.3 Provides a clear profile of learners.
- 6.4 Enables learners to show quality work which is done without pressure and constrains of time in collaboration with others.

.....contd

- 6.5 It allows demonstration of a wide range of competencies.
- 6.6 It shows the learners effort to improve and develop i.e. it demonstrates progress over time.
- 6.7 It gives learners opportunity to reflect on their work.

ACTIVITY 5

- ❖ In groups, participants to develop and present an assessment portfolio using the tasks and evidences developed.
- ❖ The portfolios should aim at demonstrating the learners progress, achievement and interests in the areas outlined in the rubrics and the core competencies.

PORTFOLIO DEVELOPMENT

Requirements:

- a) Samples of portfolios
- b) Authentic tasks
- c) learners work samples
- d) Score sheets

Cont'

“Learning should not be all about the end result, portfolio is one of those assessment methods which allow learners to demonstrate more than the end result – a process orientated method.”

Chan C.(2009) Assessment: Portfolio, Assessment Resources

THE KENYA NATIONAL EXAMINATIONS COUNCIL

“One big contribution of portfolio is to give the learners the chance to reflect and revisit on their performances overtime”.
