

TEACHER PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT (TPD) PROGRAM

INDUCTION

- It is important to note that any program introduced in a government system has some background
- Research has proved that pre-service training alone does not equip teachers with all the necessary knowledge, skills , values and attitudes for effective teaching.
- Teachers improve themselves with time through experience, benchmarking others or voluntarily going back to class to enhance their knowledge. However, this alone is not adequate since not all do this voluntarily.
- Hence the need of continuous professional development of teachers to bridge the gap.

- Teacher Professional development refers to either formal or informal activities that TSC registered teachers undertake in order to continuously improve their pedagogical skills, management skills and learner outcomes.
- TPD Comprises the full range of educational experiences designed to enrich teacher's professional knowledge, understanding and capabilities throughout the teacher's career

Purpose of Teacher Professional Development

- The purpose of TPD programmes is to continuously equip and improve teachers' skills, competencies and knowledge for enhanced learning outcomes in Kenyan schools.

OVERALL OBJECTIVE

- The overall objective of the TPD programme is to professionalize teaching by continuously developing and improving teachers' skills, competencies and knowledge in line with the 21st Century core competencies aimed at enhancing the provision of quality education.

SPECIFIC OBJECTIVES

- i. Enhance a culture of life-long learning of teachers, trainers and instructional leaders;
- ii. Promoting institution-based professional learning practices communities of practice;
- iii. Equipping teachers and instructional leaders with 21st century skills;
- iv. Enhance the capacity for teachers, trainers and instructional leaders' competencies in creating supportive, safe and healthy learning environments.
- v. Promote the adoption of Competence Based Curriculum by teachers, trainers and instructional leaders.

Specific outcomes of TPD

These include: -

- Inculcating a culture of life-long learning of teachers and instructional leaders.
- Fostering personal and professional growth of teachers and instructional leaders.
- Building capacity of teachers and instructional leaders as action researchers in their practice.
- Developing capacity of teachers and instructional leaders as reflective practitioners.

REPUBLIC OF KENYA
MINISTRY OF EDUCATION

- vi. Enabling teachers to enhance knowledge, skills and attitudes in their subjects and pedagogy.
- vii. Enhancing teacher's knowledge, skills and attitudes in their roles as instructional leaders.
- viii. Building capacity of teachers' and instructional leaders' competencies in 21st century skills.
- ix. Enhancing teachers and instructional leaders' competencies in creating supportive, healthy and safe learning environment.

STRUCTURE OF TPD

Consists of three modules

1. Introductory module: which will be done by both instructional leaders and teachers. Will be covered within one year
2. Teachers' module: Consists of six levels. Each level has five chapters that will provide you with an opportunity to enhance your knowledge, skills, attitude and values expected of an effective teacher.
3. Instructional leaders' module: Consists of six levels. Each level has five chapters that will provide the instructional leader with an opportunity to enhance their knowledge, skills, attitude and values expected of an effective instructional leader.

Mode of Delivery

Blended mode of delivery:

- i. Face-to-face at sub-county venues during school holidays for 5 days and,
- ii. Online learning:
 - a) synchronous online learning using video conferencing apps
 - b) Asynchronous online learning –elearning platform (KEMI Virtual Campus) which will be accessible 24/7

NOTE: The Introductory Module will be carried out using the online platform fully for 5 days during each of the three school holidays.

LEARNING APPROACHES

Learning approaches

- KWL approach- Know, Want to Learn
- Inquiry based learning
- Self-directed learning
- Discovery
- Reflective Journaling
- Case studies
- Self-assessment
- Peer-assessment
- Question and answer

TARGET GROUPS FOR INTRODUCTORY MODULE

- All teachers and instructional leaders registered by TSC including those yet to be employed, employed by private, international and public schools.
(This includes all instructors of learning in higher learning institutions.)

INTRODUCTORY MODULE TO BE DONE IN YEAR ONE

Chapter 1

- Overview of teacher Professional development
- The Kenya Professional Teaching Standards

Chapter 2

- Competence Based Curriculum:
- Rationale for CBC
- The paradigm shift
- The Basic Education Curriculum Framework
- Core competencies
- How learners learn
- Learner centered approaches/ strategies
- Inclusive learning approaches

Chapter 3:

- Types of assessments: As, For & Of Learning
- Formative Assessment Tools/ Strategies
- Assessment Rubrics
- Developing portfolio

Chapter 4:

- Comprehensive school health and Safety
- Health and health Education,
- Health literacy,
- Social determinants of health, and School emergencies and safety;
- Basic first aid, accident, and fire safety

Chapter 5: Instructional Leadership and Financial literacy

- Concept of Instructional leadership for teachers,
- The roles of teachers as instructional leaders,
- Concept of Financial Literacy: Terminologies & Applications

ASSESSMENT

The following assessments will be used:

- Reflective journals: This is a tool which assesses the understanding processes, writing abilities, connection to concepts and personal knowledge. Reflective journal contains the contents of reflection by a teacher.
- E-portfolios: A portfolio is a purposeful collection of learner's work; shows effort, progress and mastery of a specified learning outcomes or competencies. It provides evidence of achievement or mastery over a period of time.
- Synthesis: Participants will be expected to prepare a final synthesis on their experiences during a particular module/ level

CERTIFICATION AND LICENSING

- Upon successful completion of the introductory module, a participant shall be issued with a transcript and a certificate
- This will be required for your progress to the next level (Teachers' Module; Level One- Chapter one or Instructional Leaders Module; Level One- Chapter one)
- This will later be required for the renewal of the Teaching License.
- NB. In line with the legal framework for TPD, and upon commencement of the TPD Programme, all TSC registered teachers will be required to acquire a Teaching License which will be renewable every 5 years upon completion of a level.

The End

