1. COMPREHENSION

Read the passage below and answer the questions that follow;

There are varied opinions as to why real pleasure ought to be. However, this is one view which approaches this controversial topic from the positive angle and lays down certain tests which true pleasure must satisfy.

Firstly, no pleasure can be right if its effects on the person who indulges in it are harmful. There are pleasures which can injure a man's body and which, in the end, can have a permanent ill-effect on his health. There are pleasures which can coarsen a man's moral fibre and lower his resistance against which is wrong. Any pleasures which leaves a man less physically fit, less mentally alert, less morally sensitive is wrong.

There are obvious instances of this. Excessive use of alcohol lowers a man's power of self-control and renders him liable to do things which he would not have done if he had soberly master of himself. The taking of drugs and stimulants can end in leaving a man a physical wreck. Over indulgence in eating and drinking can leave a man burden to himself, with his physical fitness seriously impaired. Promiscuous sexual relationships can leave a man with the most tragic of disease which will not only ruin his own life, but will be passed on to his children.

One of the simplest tests of pleasure is: What does it do to a man who indulges in it? If it is actively harmful, or even if it has a built-in risk in it, it cannot be right.

Secondly, no pleasures can be right if its effect on others is harmful. There are pleasures which can result in the corruption of other people, either physically or morally. To teach others to do wrong, to invite them to do, or to make it easier for them to do so, cannot be right. To take drugs should not be painted as adventurous and free. An illicit relationship, similarly, should not be presented as a beautiful friendship. Experiment with things that experience has proved to be disastrous cannot be looked on as the assertion of freedom.

Thirdly, pleasure which becomes an addiction can never be right. One of the old Greeks said that there were only two questions about any pleasure: 'Do I possess it or am I possessed by it?' and 'Do I control it or does it control me?' The minute a man feels that pleasure is gripping him in such a way that he cannot do without it, he will be well advised to break it before it breaks him.

Addiction can happen with things like tobacco and alcohol; it can also happen with drugs, so that a man becomes hooked on some drugs and thereby become a slave to them. It is better to have nothing to do with pleasure which is liable to become an addiction. It is essential, the moment we become aware of the growing addiction, to stop.

Fourthly, a pleasure is wrong if, to enjoy it, the essentials of life have to take second place. A pleasure should not cost too much, even if it is a good thing in itself. A man may spend on a game time and money which should have gone to his home and family. Anything in life that's gets out of proportion is wrong. Whenever any pleasure annexes time and money which should have gone to things and to people in life of even greater importance, then, however fine it is in itself, it is wrong.

N.B "Man" in this passage is used to refer to both man and woman.

Nicole: I have been reading the post on The Samaritan and they are all about leaders, public officials, and even private individuals. You have not been singled out in any way.

Mossi: Far from the truth! Take the issue of development for example. Everywhere in The Samaritan, I am being accused of inflating the cost of projects and presiding over shoddy Municipal works. Am I indeed responsible for that?

Nicole: Maybe because you are the overall leader. The buck stops with you, as they say.

Mossi: Oh, yes, it's easy to think so because I am the overall custodian of the public good in our Municipality. But take any project, such as the construction and maintenance of secondary roads in our town. Are any roads ever constructed? I will tell you what happens. Only a few kilometres of road are usually dug up and then leveled. Then the contractor pours old black oil and claims the road is tarmacked. Today our secondary roads look like part of abandoned battlefield where bombs were detonated. Even tractors can get stuck in those roads! Yet, the council pays top dollars for these roads each year! Am I responsible?

Nicole: Tell me, Your Worship.

Mossi: (Standing up and pacing about the boardroom) It is my Deputy! That irredeemable gossip and broker! As you know, he doubles up as our Municipal Secretary for the Department of Physical Infrastructure. He uses this position to ensure only his companies or those of his relatives win tenders for road construction in our Municipality. The same happen with regard to tenders for the construction of bridges, pavements, drains and watercourses. Sadly, they don't do any meaningful work! They simply misappropriate the funds!

Nicole: So, what does that have to do with the people?

Mossi: Doesn't bother you that the people overwhelmingly voted for this kind of a person knowing very well he has never accomplished anything in his life other than swindle the people?

Nicole: Oh, did they know?

Mossi: Of course, they did! There's hardly any person he has not conned in this town! You always find him leaning on the street poles in our town's backstreets, gazing vacantly into empty spaces like an evil spirit- waiting for fake title deeds to be printed. He prints ten title deeds for the same plot to ten different people. Yet the people went ahead and voted for him! Why do people glorify evil and mediocrity, and then turn and whine when it hurts them? And you know what?

Nicole: Tell me Your Worship.

Mossi: if you look at him closely, you will find that he resembles the sloth. Have you seen a sloth? That godforsaken creature that gives you nausea the moment you see it! That's exactly him! Slow, ugly, dim-witted, and outright useless!

House to clean
But she had a twelved room
House to clean
Had to get breakfast
Dinner, and supper too
Then take care of her children
When I got through
Wash, iron and scrub
Walk the dog around,
It was too much
Nearly broke me down

I said, madam
Can it be

You are trying to make a
Pack-horse out of me
She opened her mouth
