

THE KENYA NATIONAL EXAMINATIONS COUNCIL

School Based Assessment

GRADE 7 -July 2023

PERFORMING ARTS

SCORING GUIDE

PART 1: PROJECT

This paper consists of 5 printed pages.

Turn Over

INSTRUCTIONS TO THE GRADE 7 TEACHER

This scoring guide is for Part 1 of the Project work (Performance). Part 2 (Appreciation) will be assessed in the written paper.

You are required to:

1. Read and internalize the Assessment Tasks and this Scoring Guide in preparation for assessment.
2. Avail the Assessment Tasks to the Grade 7 learners at least three (3) weeks prior to assessment.
3. Guide the Grade 7 learners through every step of the Assessment Tasks.
4. Schedule a day for the assessment of Task 1.
5. Set up an ideal environment/space, free of interruptions, for the assessment of this task.
6. Use the Assessment Rubric provided to score task 1 as presented by each Grade 7 learner.
7. Record each learner's scores on the Scoring Sheet provided.
8. Upload the learners' scores on the KNEC portal as guided.
9. Ensure strict adherence to the assessment guidelines and timelines provided.

ASSESSMENT RUBRIC

1. Selecting the folk song

(4 marks)

Use the criteria set in the rubric below to award scores to each Grade 7 learner during the performance of the folksong.

Award marks for each Grade 7 learner's performance per level as follows:

Level 1 (Below expectation) - 1 mark

Level 2 (Approaching expectation) - 2 marks

Level 3 (Meeting expectation) - 3 marks

Level 4 (Exceeding expectation) - 4 marks

(4 marks)

LEVEL CRITERIA	4 EXCEEDING EXPECTATION (4 marks)	3 MEETING EXPECTATION (3 marks)	2 APPROACHING EXPECTATION (2 marks)	1 BELOW EXPECTATION (1 mark)
Selection of folk song	Expertly and imaginatively selects a folk song considering the occasion during which it is performed, purpose of performance of the song, participants, and messages in the folk song.	Selects a folk song considering the occasion during which it is performed, purpose of the song, participants, and messages in the folk song.	Selects a folk song that has a few inconsistencies in highlighting either the occasion during which the song is performed, purpose of the song, participants or messages in the folk song.	Selects a folk song that has numerous inconsistencies in highlighting the occasion during which the song is performed, purpose of performing the song, participants and messages in the folk song.

2. Performing the folk song

(32 Marks)

Use the criteria set in the rubric below to award scores for each Grade 7 learner's performance of the folk song.

Award marks for each Grade 7 learner's performance per level as follows:

Level 1 (Below expectation) - 1 mark

Level 2 (Approaching expectation) - 2 marks

Level 3 (Meeting expectation) - 3 marks

Level 4 (Exceeding expectation) - 4 marks

LEVEL CRITERIA	4 EXCEEDING EXPECTATION (4 marks)	3 MEETING EXPECTATION (3 marks)	2 APPROACHING EXPECTATION (2 marks)	1 BELOW EXPECTATION (1 mark)
Stage presence and etiquette	Displays a highly confident and effective stage presence through capturing and commanding the attention of the audience, maintaining an appropriate posture, making good use of stage, having an impressive visual appearance, and in displaying meaningful body language and general stage mannerisms	Displays effective stage presence through capturing and commanding the attention of the audience, maintaining an appropriate posture, making good use of stage, having an impressive visual appearance, and in displaying meaningful body language and general stage mannerisms	Displays effective stage presence with a few errors in capturing and commanding the attention of the audience, maintaining an appropriate posture, making good use of stage, having an impressive visual appearance, or in displaying meaningful body language and general stage mannerisms	Displays a stage presence with numerous errors in capturing and commanding the attention of the audience, maintaining an appropriate posture, making use of stage, visual appearance, and in body language and general stage mannerisms
Logic in presentation of performance	Compellingly presents the folk song logically with a clear oral synopsis, beginning, development and conclusion.	Presents the folk song logically with a clear oral synopsis, a clear beginning, development and conclusion.	Presents the folk song with a few errors in clarity of oral synopsis, and organization of beginning, development and conclusion.	Presents the folk song with numerous errors in articulation of the oral synopsis, and organization of beginning, development and conclusion.
Effectiveness of singing	Creatively and expressively sings the folk song with appropriate pitching, tempo, proper pronunciation of words,	Sings the folk song effectively with appropriate pitching and tempo, proper pronunciation of words, clear	Sings folk song with a few errors either in pitching, tempo, pronunciation of words, tone or in projection of voice.	Sings folk song with numerous errors in pitching, tempo, pronunciation of words, tone and projection of voice clarity of tone and projection of voice.	of tone and well projected voice.

Suitability of gestures and movements.	Creatively and skilfully incorporates suitable gestures and movements in the performance of the folk song.	Presents folk song incorporating suitable gestures and movements.	Presents folk song with a few errors in either gestures or movements.	Presents folk song with many errors in both gestures and movements.
Appropriateness of costumes, makeup, and props	Creatively and artistically uses appropriate costumes, makeup, and props in the performance of the folk song.	Uses appropriate costumes, makeup, and props in the performance of the folk song.	Performs the folk song with inconsistencies in appropriateness of either costumes, makeup, or props	Performs the folk song with inappropriate costumes, makeup, and props
Suitability of accompaniment	Creatively and expertly incorporates appropriate props and accompaniment in the performance of the folk song.	Incorporates appropriate accompaniment in the performance of the folk song.	Performs the folk song with inconsistencies in appropriateness of accompaniment.	Performs the folk song with inappropriate accompaniment.
Effectiveness in performance of individual role.	Excellent performs more than one role (soloist, instrumentalist, response group member) in performance of folk song.	Effectively performs individual role as soloist, instrumentalist, or response group member.	Performs individual role as soloist, instrumentalist, or response group member with a few errors.	Ineffectively performs individual role as soloist, instrumentalist, or response group member.
Effectiveness in the communication of message	Captivatingly and effectively communicates the intended message(s) in the folk song through maintaining an effective stage presence, logical presentation of performance, effective singing, suitable movements, appropriate costumes and props, and suitable accompaniment.	Effectively communicates the intended message(s) of the folk song through maintaining an effective stage presence, logical presentation of performance, effective singing, suitable movements, appropriate costumes and props, and suitable accompaniment.	Communicates the intended message(s) of the folk song with a few errors in stage presence, logic of presentation of performance, effectiveness of singing, appropriateness of movements, and suitability of costumes props, and accompaniment.	Communicates the intended message(s) of the folk song with numerous errors in stage presence, logic of presentation of performance, effectiveness of singing, appropriateness of movements, and suitability of costumes props, and accompaniment.

3. Assessment of core competency

4 marks

Use the criteria set in the rubric below to award scores for each Grade 7 learner on acquisition of competency during the execution of the entire assessment task.

Award marks for each Grade 7 learner's performance per level as follows:

- Level 1 (Below expectation) - 1 mark
- Level 2 (Approaching expectation) - 2 mark.
- Level 3 (Meeting expectation) - 3 marks
- Level 4 (Exceeding Expectation) – 4 marks

LEVEL CRITERIA	4 EXCEEDING EXPECTATION (4 marks)	3 MEETING EXPECTATION (3 marks)	2 APPROACHING EXPECTATION (2 marks)	1 BELOW EXPECTATION (1 mark)
Display of communication and collaboration	Displays excellent communication (speaking and singing articulately, keen listening and observation) and collaboration (sharing tasks, working with others, recognizing others' ideas) skills during selection, training, and performing of the group folk song.	Displays proper communication (speaking and singing articulately, keen listening and observation) and collaboration (sharing tasks, working with others, recognizing others' ideas) skills during selection, training, and performing of the group folk song.	Displays a few errors either in communication (speaking and singing articulately, keen listening and observation), or collaboration (sharing tasks, working with others, recognizing others' ideas) during selection, training, and performing of the group folk song.	Displays numerous errors in communication (speaking and singing, listening and observation), and collaboration (sharing tasks, working with others, recognizing others' ideas) during selection, training, and performing of group folk song.

THE KENYA NATIONAL EXAMINATIONS COUNCIL
Grade 7 JSS - Performing Arts
SCHOOL BASED ASSESSMENT

CRITERIA		Appreciation (4 marks)	Performing 4 Marks each x6 = 24 marks						Creating 4 Marks each x 3 =12 marks			TOTAL 40 MARKS
			Selection of folk song	Communication and Collaboration	Stage presence and etiquette	Presentation of performance	Effectiveness of singing	Effectiveness in performance of individual role	Effectiveness in the communication of message	Suitability of gestures and movements	Appropriateness of costumes, makeup, and props
Name	Assessment Number

THIS IS THE LAST PRINTED PAGE